

How does this project relate to your general artistic practice?

How do you hope to see the public interact with your project?
OR, how will the community be involved with this project?

In what discipline(s) or medium(s) will you work?

How will you engage community / public participation?

On the large sheet and maps provided, write and/or draw your artistic vision for this project, using these questions as a guide.

How does this project advance your artistic work and practice—pushing you to do things or work in ways you haven't before?

Where is your proposed site and what is your relationship with it?

What people and organization(s) do you want to work with?

What community issues, concerns, or traditions does your project address?