NEW ENGLAND FOUNDATION FOR THE ARTS

Supporting the Creative Sector in Vermont

The New England Foundation for the Arts (NEFA) invests in the arts to enrich communities in New England and beyond. NEFA serves as a regional partner for the National Endowment for the Arts, New England's state arts agencies, and private foundations.

With support from the Vermont Arts Council, NEFA's programs support artists and communities through:

- » GRANTS
to artists and cultural organizations to create and tour work
- » CREATIVEGROUND
New England's online creative community, connecting over 3,000 of Vermont's artists, cultural organizations, and creative businesses to each other and the region
- » CREATIVE COMMUNITIES EXCHANGE & IDEA SWAP
convenings that bring peers and projects together across state lines
- » CREATIVE ECONOMY RESEARCH
case-making data and networking

New England Now

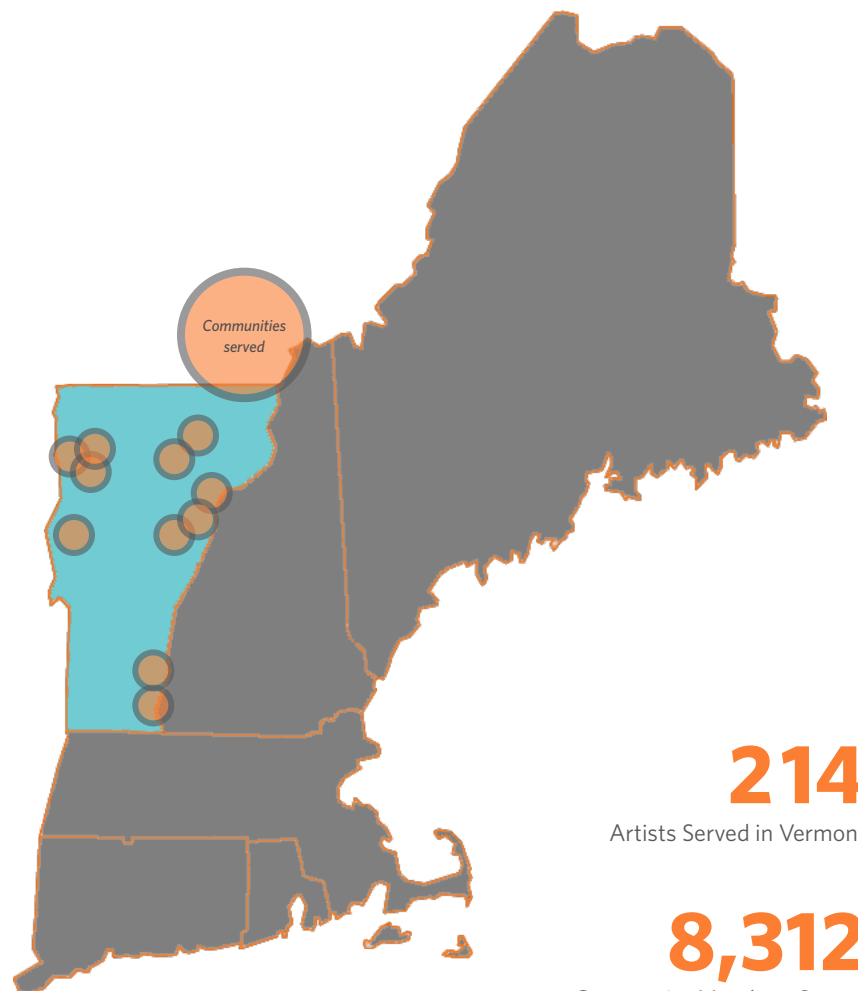

A National Dance Project Regional Dance Development Initiative

New England Now is being developed to strengthen and elevate visibility for New England dance makers. Funding to support this initiative is from the Boston Foundation, the Doris Duke Charitable Foundation, and the Aliad Fund at the Boston Foundation.

A dance lab will take place in the summer of 2020. Look out for pre-lab events across New England this Fall 2019.

Visit nefa.org/NewEnglandNow for more.
